

State and Federal – Homeless Homeless Children and Families

The Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind is a public agency designed to serve visually impaired and deaf/hard of hearing students with proof of Florida residency. Regardless of whether or not a family or child is homeless, a child may still attend FSDB.

The following services are offered to all students:

- 1) Education
- 2) Transportation
- 3) Health care services
- 4) Safety and security
- 5) Boarding residences for students outside of St. Johns County
